The Ottawa coroner has added a one-week extension to the hands-on-heart performance that was supposed to make her hands warm on Tuesday night as the temperature dropped. "Out of respect for the families, the people of Ottawa and to keep up the courage of the people that have come forward to me in the last few days, I have decided to extend the selfless service of my colleagues and myself to another week," said Ottawa's chief coroner, Dr. Dirk Huyer, in a letter to the staff that delivered the news.
