Medal of Honor Warfighter was a blockbuster multiplayer World War 2 game where you can be a sniper, a soldier, a grunt, a tank driver, a bomber pilot or any other job you want and fight from the deserts of Egypt to the mountains of Japan. You wanted freedom and you got it in a variety of game modes. This was the game that changed the way we played World War 2. We are so proud of the game that we decided to make an all new game that takes place after we've won the war, a game that is about friendship. Our vision was a future where you can play as a fox, a wolf, and a bear! A game where you can learn skills together with your best friend. A game where you get to know and love the characters like you've never seen them before. A game where you will get to be a polar bear and train with your furry friends. A game where we put a hero in a dog costume and give you the chance to rescue the dog's owner. The shortlist for this year's Ozzie and Harvey awards has been announced. The finalists are being finalized for the 2017 Ozzie Awards, our annual tribute to the finest achievements in Australian video games. We're very excited to see the shortlist, but we can't wait to honour the winners.
