Fantasy Realm Tower Defense is an epic tower defense game made by small yet dedicated team of TD lovers. The team consisted of a half of guys who have been playing tower defense games for a while and the other half of guys who are starting to take tower defense genre seriously and are making their first steps in the tower defense world. The game is made by a small team of professional developers and a lot of hard work and thinking have gone into it. We wanted to make a tower defense game that would appeal to old tower defense fans as well as to people who are familiar with the defense genre. The fantasy TD game is something that I and my friends have been expecting for a long time. We are taking all TD games to a new level and we feel a bit of success is under our belts already. We will try to make more and more awesome tower defense games! Don't forget to rate the game :)! It will help us to increase the amount of free content! Fantasy Realm Tower Defense HD + Castle Defense game has 55 maps, 16 bosses with 3 upgrades. 18 kinds of enemies, 16 tower types, 5 terrain variants, 6 tower upgrades variants. 9 main towers, 30 other towers. Exposed AI of the game is supported. Who doesn't like dragons? Become a Dragon and defeat all the castle defenders. Armor is something to consider. Upgrade armor to make your dragon more powerful. Play the fantasy tower defense game! Help us to defend the Kingdom against thousands of enemies attacking the castle! Great graphics and style in the Fantasy genre! Test yourself in tower defense offline as a commander, give a worthy rebuff to the enemy! This is the first of TD games from our small group of developers. We tried to fix mistakes of previous tower defense games and made it in fantasy style. Features of Fantasy Realm TD: - 37 levels with different starting conditions and relative difficulty - 10 kinds of enemies with unique abilities - Flying and ground units - 5 tower upgrade branches - 54 types of towers with individual progress of each - 6 castle upgrade types - Challenging balance - Tower target priority selection system Those of users who follow our development progress know that we have come a long way of experimenting with tower defense strategy games and defence genre. We wanted to get the best out of TD possible coming up with different epic combinations and new ideas. Testing

I don't want to know anything more than what's actually happening. ♦ I'm not a competitive person. I find it a pain to win. ♦ I'm not interested in being the favorite or the idol. ♦ I also don't want to pay more attention to winning than to my friends. ♦ I can't stand the way the word "fun" has been abused. I don't like playing games which are just for fun and I don't like games which are always just for fun. ♦ After finishing a game, I find it difficult to pay attention to other games. I don't have the time to read the news or to watch other gameplays. It takes a long time until I find a new game which I want to play. ♦ I often don't get the time to get in the mood of games and I don't find the time to prepare for a game. ♦ It's mostly difficult to enjoy games which don't challenge me. ♦ Sometimes I cannot even enjoy a game which I like. ♦ I find it hard to is a 3D sandbox game that is set in ancient Roman times. Players are able to capture animals and claim them as mounts. They can also choose a career, ranging from Cavalry, to public slave hunter, to gladiator. Players roam the vast Roman Empire and take part in games and contests, or be hired for weddings and banquets, helping the city wealth on special occasions. In addition to great strategy in combat and the capture and manipulation of animals, players can pay for immigration to free slaves from their homes. On the game map map are several futuristic-looking cities are players an overworld map to roam. The goal of the game is to become the greatest gladiator of the Roman Empire, whose ultimate sporting event is a battle against famous warrior Spartacus. Gladiator: Road to the Colosseum is offering creation mode, allowing players to build their own arenas, requiring them to build several rich cities on the map, starting with gathering all the required materials, until the final construction, in which you compete for a place in the Colosseum. So far, the characters are the passive entities of the game, but because of the addition of more complex characters to the human forms of gladiators, one can expect some original dynamics. The game is presented in simulation mode, so the colors of the map match the dimensions of the landscapes in the game, although the level of detail is above average for a game of this type. The thing that caused me most of the game is the balance of challenge. The game presents an entirely different experience for people who like the simulation games and those who prefer the simplified gameplay of the action titles. The level of difficulty is reasonable and the mechanics are simple, what does not feel forced but kept fluidly. The driving force of the game is to reach a great victory in the Colosseum, so during all of this, the presence of interesting characters, turning the player into the new protagonist of this odyssey, in the game is what stands out. The game supports mouse and keyboard, and the controls are simple. It is clear that the developers have taken into account the problems that users encountered in the similar titles and the technology evolved with the game is just perfect, that is, effective to fight in the arena and combat. The game is in the
